PROCTORIAN

1966

IN APPRECIATION

Now that we have come to the end of our secondary schooling, we feel it appropriate to dedicate our class yearbook, the Proctorian, to a person who has given us fine leadership and helpful advice, a person of great patience and deep understanding - all of which were needed to guide us through this final year.

We, the class of 1966, proudly dedicate our yearbook to Miss Cheryl Gallus.

IN MEMORY OF DIANE POMAINVILLE

Diane, a girl whose warm smile
Was like a valley brushed by snow
Or flowers blooming in the meadows,
This smile lives in the hearts
Remembered in the prayers
Of everyone who knew her,
God, take care of our Diane.

Teaching the Driver's Education Course was another one of Mr. Martel's daily activities.

MR. ROBERT J. MARTEL

Mr. Martel is shown opening a gift given in appreciation of his effort in making a successful production of our senior play.

Bringing a fresh approach to the Industrial Arts Department this year was Mr. Robert Martel. His classes, both challenging and enjoyable, gave the students an opportunity for practical application of their knowledge.

The untimely death of Mr. Martel, resulting from an auto accident, brought sorrow to our school and community. We, as seniors, especially remember Mr. Martel for his fine direction of the senior play. His willingness to work, indomitable patience, witty remarks, and unbeatable spirit will not soon be forgotten.

OUR FACULTY is gathered for its weekly seminar. Mrs. Squires, our Maineac chemistry teacher, is seated to the right of the industrious head of our Music Department, Mr. Sawyer. Miss Monette, sponsor of our tremendous yearbook, Miss Hoiles, our French teacher (who actually speaks French), our well-read librarian, Mrs. Urban, Mrs. Ross, our Latin sage, assembly director, Miss Brolin, and our dramatist and English teacher, Miss Gallus, complete those seated to the right of our capable principal, Mr. Mitiguy. Mrs. Mahoney, who is responsible for those yummy cookies that everyone is waiting to eat, Mr. Bell, the junior high social studies instructor who recently came from Japan, Mr. Ezzo, coach of the junior high basketball team (and science instructor), Miss Cramer, ski enthusiast and Coach Lawson's counterpart, Mr. Pilcher, our British-educated math instructor, Mr. Boles, our knowledgeable history teacher and junior class advisor, Mr. Abrahamson, the able and enthusiastic Student Council advisor, Mr. Martel, the beaming Mr. Metalious, our invaluable guidance counselor, and the invisible and invincible Coach Lawson constitute the rest of our faculty.

ACTIVITIES

FRENCH CLUB

The French Club has once again become an active organization! Our energetic advisor, Miss Hoiles, has worked hard toward making the club of benefit to its members. Roger Dumas, the president, has been wonderful at creating new ideas and carrying them out to completion. The French Club has now acquired the proper French accent!

SCIENCE CLUB

Under the capable guidance of our advisor, Mrs. Squires, the Science Club has organized and directed another successful Science Fair this year. Our president, John Moody, has kept the club busy pursuing individual interests in diverse fields of science.

ORNITHOLOGY CLUB

With Mr. Pilcher as advisor, the Ornithology Club has become an integral part of the extracurricular activities at Proctor.

At weekly meetings, the members discuss and study local birds, watch films on related topics, and encourage outside bird spotting.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The Honor Society represents the high standards of academic and social achievement for which every student strives. Its membership consists of students selected for their scholarship, leadership, character, and service to the school and community. Cathy Curtis, Don Gallus, and Amie Taylor are the present members of the Honor Society under the advisorship of Mr. Boles.

Mr. Sawyer, the present head of the Music Department, has brought a new spirit and vitality to Proctor High School. The Glee Club has risen from ten members to more than eighty with a quarter of its voices male. The band, too, has increased in size as well as ability. Due to the steadfast work of Mr. Sawyer, it has greatly enlarged its musical capacity, exhibiting its talents at concerts, pep-assemblies, and basketball games.

SENIOR PLAY

"Mr. Lat" and servant

"The Dover Road" by A. A. Milne was produced by the class of 1966 on Dec. 4, 1965, after a grueling day of college board tests. There were many, many practices, many, many hours of studying lines, and much merriment associated with the play that finally came off without too many mistakes. Gail tripped, Alan couldn't open the bottle, and the set nearly fell over, but it was all part of the fun. All those associated with the play would like to express their appreciation to the tremendous producer, Mr. Martel, whose patience was limitless and knowledge of the theatre boundless.

Aha!

SUTHERLAND

Of interest to all P.H.S. students is the school newspaper, the SUTHERLAND. News of class activities and school sports, a Pro-Con column, and letters to our friend "Dear Floyd" make up each issue. The difficult task of co-ordinating this material is the responsibility of editor Amie Taylor, ably assisted by John Moody. Enthusiasm on the part of all staff members make the SUTHERLAND an asset to the entire student body.

Due to the intense efforts of our yearbook staff, this Proctorian is one of the most original ever produced by Proctor High. Whether these changes are good or otherwise, we shall let you decide. Each person has done his part and the finished product will testify as to the effectiveness of our labor. We hope that you enjoy our yearbook as much as we have enjoyed preparing it for you.

EVENING IN TAHITI

Queen Carol and Her Grace Rollic

Cream of the Crop

Our Junior Prom was very cozy - 24 couples. Everyone present, though, had a good time (except for the spectators ejected by Mr. Abbott).

The decorations, depicting a Tahitian paradise, were excellent. They should have been; we worked on them from 8 A.M. to 4 P.M. The promotion, however, was lacking - and we lost $127. Oh, well . . .

Someone Came!!!

The Court, headed by Carol Gollstrom and her escort Tom Grace, was picked by our band, The Keynotes.

Freshman waiters and waitresses provided the refreshments of punch and cookies - not very original, but quite satisfying.

All in all, our prom wasn't too bad. We had fun doing it, but sure breathed a sigh of relief at its climax.

In the fall of 1965, the Proctor Phantoms completed their most successful soccer season ever as they won their first state soccer championship with a 13-0 record. The Phantoms also won their ninth straight Marble Valley League championship, allowing only seven goals during the regular season.

Headed by Coach Tom Lawson and co-captains Don Gallus and Kevin Austin, the Proctor "11" defeated a determined Springfield ballclub by a score of 1-0 for the initial win of the 1965 campaign. Traveling to Chester, the Phantoms whipped the highly-rated Sentinels 3-2 in double overtime. Returning home, Proctor easily up-ended Wallingford 6-0. Hosting arch-rival Otter Valley, Proctor downed the Otters 2-1. At Ludlow, the Phantoms bombed the Presidents 11-2. The second meeting between Springfield and Proctor was equally as tough as the first. However, the Phantoms were again on top 2-1. Proctor clinched at least a tie for the MVL as they shut out the Sentinels from Chester by a score of 2-0. Wallingford had improved little as they fell before the Phantoms 6-0. Otter Valley hosted the Phantoms and was presented with a blunt 4-1 defeat. Proctor completed the regular season with a 3-0 win over Ludlow.

In the first round of the state tournament, Proctor faced undefeated Leland & Gray, and won 5-0. The semi-finals saw undefeated Swanton against Proctor, and the Phantoms grabbed a 3-0 victory. Proctor then proceeded to display one of the finest passing attacks ever as they netted the state championship by beating Danville 3-1.

The 1965-66 varsity basketball season was perhaps the most productive in the annals of Proctor High School. Establishing a fantastic 19-1 record, the Phantoms won the Marble Valley League Championship, the Southern Vermont "M" Championship, and the Vermont State Class "M" Championship. Proctor, under the able coaching of Tom Lawson, boasted a balanced scoring attack with Bob Greene, Don Gallus, John Poljacik, and Ed Pentkowski averaging ten points or better. However, even more astonishing was the fact that Proctor only allowed 48.50 points per game...the best defensive record in the league.

J.V. BASKETBALL

ROW 1 (l-r), T. Curtis, H. Shortsleeves, K. Sheehy, T. Curtis, C. Doty, B. Clarion, D. Westin, Coach Abrahamson; ROW 2, E. Kimball, mgr., D. Provencher, M. Corey, B. Burney, K. Rappeno, G. Gallus

Under the able leadership of Coach Abrahamson Proctor High's junior varsity basketball team chalked up thirteen victories while suffering only four defeats. Perhaps the highlight of their season was a win against Chester High School in double overtime. Twice the "Little Phantoms" had to come from behind to avoid defeat. Freshmen Clayton Doty and Hal Shortsleeves made excellent debuts for Proctor High School. Hal was high scorer for the team during the season and Clayt was a near second. Coach Abrahamson used every member of the team extensively, and it looks like Proctor may not have to worry about basketball for a few years.

To Coach Tom Lawson:

For your willingness to aid the male youth of this school and this community, for the countless hours that you have taken from your family to give to the teams of Proctor High School, and for the many miles that you have traveled to discover and present the best possible instruction to your teams, we, the class of 1966, on behalf of the student body and the people of this town, humbly thank you for all you have done.
